

ESSENCE Marketplace™ celebrates community, entrepreneurs, and beauty! Visit and emerge through unique sections of grass roots, community-based education, and nonprofit organizations in Community Corner as well as shopping destinations featuring fine art, fine craft, and handmade collectibles in Essence Marketplace entrepreneur vendor exhibits. Entrepreneurs will present a flavorful presentation of merchandise ranging from beauty products in the Beauty Marketplace, Black Excellence apparel, and unique, one-of-a-kind accessories! Don't forget to hit the main stage and engage with TV personalities and artists that will shine their light on unique brands in the Celeb Zone Marketplace!

Essence Marketplace & Community exhibits will open for business on Friday, Saturday & Sunday. July 1, 2 & 3 from 9:30am to 5:00pm daily at the Morial Convention Center.

1811 Kid Ory Historic House, Laplace, Louisiana

One of the oldest structures in St. John the Baptist parish, the 1811 Kid Ory Historic House figures in two noteworthy moments in American history: The 1811 rebellion of enslaved people and the dawn of jazz.

Louisiana Civil Rights Trail

Louisiana led the nation in many Modern Civil Rights activities. Louisiana held the nation's first bus boycott in 1954. Martin Luther King Jr. used it as a model for the Montgomery bus boycott two years later. Four six-year-old girls were the first to desegregate a school system. The Southern Christian Leadership Conference was formed in New Orleans. Louisiana had several landmark U.S. Supreme Court decisions that helped push the movement forward. The Louisiana Civil Rights Trail identifies the sites and communicates the stories that demonstrate the power and determination of people —young, old, Black, White — in Louisiana during the modern Civil Rights Movement to MAKE RIGHTS REAL. Three Notes Skincare, Collierville, TN

Three Notes is an all-natural, plant-based skincare line that uses the medicinal power of essential oils and skin healthy teas to naturally heal skin issues. Three Notes skincare is a two-part skincare system that aims to heal skin issues naturally by targeting the root of the problem and not just the symptoms of acne, dry skin and other skin conditions. It includes drinkable skin healthy teas that detox the body from within (specifically the gut and the liver) to cleanse the body of toxins as well as a topical system that aids in healing the skin topically. Cleansers, Toners, Moisturizers, Masks & Scrubs. <https://threenotes.com>
